HISTORY

The Pigskin Club was organized in 1938 by Dr. Charles B. Fisher, former star football player on the Howard University Bison team of 1917 to 1920.

MOTTO: "Democracy in Sports"

PURPOSE

That there be an ever improving membership between persons interested in the game of football and other sports; that they may be given encouragement for good clean sports; that there may be a more perfect understanding of sports amongst such persons; and there may be mutual benefits and pleasures derived from this organization. To recognize outstanding athletes both men and women at all levels in all sports.
